Thought for the Week

Wisdom is what remains when you run out of opinions

Presidents Remarks - Jack Rodgers

Jack reported on his visit to the Norrie Club the previous, where they inducted 4 new lady Members.

Tuesday, to quote Jack, was a wasted day spent with the DG and his wife, they did a tour of Whyalla and the surrounding districts

Highlights

Brian had an expensive highlight visiting his daughter in Sydney. Jack and Jenny had a more expensive highlight going to Cooper's Creek, where the ferry crossing was $50 per vehicle in each direction. Kerry's son is going for a job interview with Onesteel. Clint went countering in the Flinders Ranges.

Birthdays & Anniversaries

Peter Nichols was in ducted on 5th August 2008.

REPORTSSecretary - Tim Clements

Information regarding the Science Experience for young people has been received.

The Whyalla Aged Care group is looking for assistance to purchase three digital ready tv sets and computers to allow the oldies to use Facebook!

He also reminded Members about registering for the District Conference and inquired if anyone would be interested in a "Riverboat" experience.

Service Projects - Jane Owens

Jane reminded us of the clean up planned for the Pavilion on the next Saturday ,she also circulated rosters for manning the MCU and the gate at the Whyalla Show.

Public Relations - Kerry Wishart

Kerry proposed a meeting at her home on Wednesday the 11th, at 7.00pm to consider fund raising events.

There had been a couple of articles in the Whyalla News ,unfortunately, these had been edited and lost a bit of the message.

Sergeant - Peter Nichols

Peter did an impersonation of a Federal Politician, in levying several new taxes

Lyn, for her improvement in attendance figures and for winning the raffle

Club History ; Vin Higgins

Vin went back to October 1996, which was the visit of DG John Downing.

President was Dave Ireson.

A letter had been received stating the late Rtn. Jim Milne had bequeathed $25.000 to the Club to be distributed to several junior sporting organisers in the town.

GUEST SPEAKER

DG Ed presented a Presidential Citation

To Jack due to Michele's absence

Which the Club had earned last year.

He also took the opportunity to present an Official theme tie to his assistant Tim, in recognition of his service to the District.

In his address to the Club Ed spoke of how each Club is autonomous and develops it's own culture. Though there are several things which are a given, such as the 4 way test and the requirements to pay all dues.

His goals for the Rotary year, are to make a difference and develop strong Clubs.

Membership is an ongoing concern, with the District now having 200 fewer members than when Glen Eden was DG in 2001.

Rotary is trying to contact younger people through a programme called Next Generation, which will use Facebook and Twitter.

He would like all Clubs to support the Rotary foundation, as their charity of choice.

He spoke on the ongoing concerns with polio and how Rotary is still fighting the fight The main countries of concern are India, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Nigeria

Lastly, he told us all to have fun!

AG Tim Clements and DG Ed King
