Thought for the Week

It takes a magician to pull a rabbit out of a hat, but any fool can let the cat out of the bag.

Presidents Remarks - Jack Odgers

Pres. Jack advised that the Whyalla 4Wheel Drive Club had used the Pavilion at the weekend and all had gone well.

Highlights

Keith had two, his grandchildren had been staying and he had taken them to Warren's Gorge and secondly, that they had gone home.

Clint had spent the weekend walking in the Edowie Gorge in the Flinders.

Glen had gone to Ceduna for a 50th year reunion of the Chara Footy Club which he had coached

Birthdays & Anniversaries

Fai will be having a birthday on Friday the 8th.

REPORTS*Secretary - Tim Clements

There were several requests for financial assistance, but unfortunately, in Jane's absence, Tim had to hold on to them.

Two Members have requested leave of absence from the Club. This will be discussed by the Board.

Service Projects - Brian Moodie

There will be a working bee at the MCU, to catch up on the outstanding jobs.

Club Service - Soto Stuppos

Soto advised there will be a Committee at his home on the Wednesday at 7.00 pm.

Ass Governor: Tim Clements

Tim spoke on part of this year's theme, "Bridging Continents" He read from an article, describing the situation in Turkey's District 2420.

This covers Clubs on both sides of the Bosphorus Strait and the bridges there actually span two continents.

He further expanded on the non-physical bridges, which Rotarians can and do use to spread our message.

Local Contact: Glen Eden

In Perry's absence, Glen took the opportunity to give the Club sales people a bit of encouragement, as there have been several non re-newers, So several new subscribers are required.

Club History-Vin Higgins

This was from Meeting 2170 on the 14th of October 1997.

The President was Keith Wilson.

The Guest Speaker for the evening was Dr Luis Isabel, who was the Director of Surgery at the Whyalla Hospital and he spoke on his life and the operation of the hospital.

Sergeant - Peter Nichols

Peter correctly fined Glen for creeping past the Attendance Officer without paying. Kerry, for selling the raffle tickets and then winning it and Tim, for using his power as Ass. Governor to speak to the Club

GUEST SPEAKER

Ian Reschke

Digital TV Switchover

Ian is the computer "Expert" with the City Council and he has been on a training course with the Federal Dept. of Communications, with the aim of assisting the people in this region for when the analogue tv signal is switched on the 15th of December this year

Rather than talk to us, he made the session a question and answer format and several points were clarified

There was some doubt, if we will be getting any other tv channels and the broadcasters in this area are not yet broadcasting in high definition.

Vote of Thanks— Kerry Wishart

Kerry thanked Ian for his informative presentation and presented with a wine glass.

Closing Remarks-

Pres Jack advised the Members, that the Whyalla Norrie Club now meet at the New Whyalla Hotel.

He displayed a new Club banner, which he presented to Rtn James Hale.

Ian Reschke & Rtn. Kerry
