Thought for the Week

From Chairman Michele

No matter how old a mother is, she watches her mature age children for improvement

Presidents Remarks - Jack Odgers

Pres Jack spoke on his attendance at the Meals on Wheels AGM the previous week, they were apparently struggling to find a treasurer, when Jack stood up and proposed someone and his nomination was accepted. It was seen as a coup d'état.

Jack's wife Jenny is back home from the Royal Adelaide and is progressing very slowly.

He advised that the Board has granted Kerry a six month leave of absence, this is due to work commitments.

Glen reminded the Pres. For the need to appoint another PR Officer.

Highlights

Jari and Cheryl had an unusual weekend, they attended a dinner at the Adelaide Club, where they mixed with "royalty" and were given a title, so he is now to be known as Sir Jari.

Soto suggested that the Adelaide Club is the place that time forgot!!

Lyn advised that her granddaughter, Bianca, has raised most of the money for her trip.

REPORTS*Secretary - Tim Clements

Tim advised that we have received an invitation to attend the Samaritan College prize night at the Middleback Theatre, on Monday at the 6th of December, he also tabled the Annual Report of the Phoenix Society.

Service Projects - Jane Owens

Jane reported that the roster for the next outing of the MCU at the After Pageant Fair is filling nicely, Brian will be co-ordinating this event.

There will be a Committee meeting at Clint's home on Wednesday the 25th.

Clint is delivering some more hospital beds to DIK next week, they are apparently going to a spinal rehabilitation unit at a hospital in Fiji.

Club Service - Soto Stuppos

At last the new element for the automatic do-nut machine is on its way and hopefully it can be fitted before the van is used.

There will be a Committee at Glen's home on the following evening.

Local Contact-Perry Eden

This is getting near completion, Perry advised the two new contacts had been signed up, a lawyer and a furniture removalist, this makes 39 entries

Sergeant - Peter Nichols

Tim was fined for having Sue using a whipper snipper, sounds more like equal opportunity to me.

GUEST SPEAKER

Michele Hart

Japan Trip

Michele spoke and showed several pictures, firstly of their trip along the Great Ocean Road in Victoria and then of their recent trip to Japan, her and husband John have been there, to Kyoto, several times before, as he is involved in karate.

Highlights included a trip on the Bullet Train, which she showed pictures of and a couple of sessions at a thermal spring, where people take the waters in the nude, disappointedly, there were no pictures of this!

Another highlight, was a trip in a traditional Japanese wooden boat down a river, complete with rapids, and a running commentary in Japanese.

John Cagney

Chemmart Members Conference

As promised, John spoke on his recent trip to Sydney to attend this conference.

Among his highlights he enjoyed, was a climb over the arch of the Harbour Bridge and a dinner at Luna Park.

For John, the pick of the speakers at the conference was Kurt Fernley, the Paralympian athlete.

Kurt was born without legs and he had a tough upbringing, in the country, where he was treated exactly the same as everyone else and he lived by the idea of making the impossible possible.

This has led to his great achievements, in winning the Olympic and the New York marathons for wheelchair athlete, the latter 3 times and then recently having travelled the Kokoda Track, where he literally dragged himself up, with very little assistance on his hands.
