ROTARY INFORMATION

The Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

FIRST: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service.

SECOND: High ethical standards in business and professions. The recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society.

THIRD: The application of the ideal of service in each Rotarian's personal, business and community life;

FOURTH: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

The Four Avenues of Service

Based on the Object of Rotary, the avenues of Service are Rotary's philosophical cornerstone and the foundation on which club activity is based:

Club Service focuses on strengthening fellowship and ensuring the effective functioning of the club.

Vocational Service encourages Rotarians to serve others through their vocations and to practice high ethical standards

Community Service covers the projects and activities the club undertakes to improve life in its community.

International Service encompasses actions taken to expand Rotary's humanitarian reach around the globe and to promote world understanding and peace.

New Generations recognizes the positive change implemented by youth and young adults through leadership development activities, involvement in community and international service projects, and exchange programs that enrich and foster world peace and cultural understanding.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*It doesn't matter where you end up
The Important thing is how you got there*

PRESIDENTS REMARKS—Soto Stuppos

President Soto reported that there had been a successful Board Meeting and he would feed back to the meeting later in the evening.

HIGHLIGHTS:

AG Tim—Was in Adelaide Tuesday and Wednesday meeting the staff involved with his new job at the Food Bank. Jane—had a successful night on Friday, baby sitting her granddaughter. Jack—had his grandchildren every day. Vin—Mowed the lawn, the first time in 4 months.

Tim had the wee book—He gave us a couple of celebrations including his own Birthday on Saturday.

Tim—As the Job Captain, Tim asked all who are involved to meet for a few minutes after tonight's dinner meeting

SERGEANT—IPP Jack

Once again IPP Jack did his bit to enhance the Rotary Club of Whyalla's coffers with his Sergeant's report. Here are but a few:

John C—Mr perfect, out dining with his sons. Fai—Borers in the house & looking for a tradesman. Tim—a bit sad and tired, getting ready for his new job. Glen—Can't see very well but his hearing is fine. Vin—has mowed his lawn and he was seen jogging at the beach or was that a gentle stroll. Brian—the dapper Scotsman.

Jane—with the Harrods bag.

ROTARY INFORMATION — President Elect, Jane

Jane reported back to the meeting on Session 2 of the Rotary Leadership Institute course. Subjects covered included:

Homework— There was a self evaluation of performance and operations of an individuals knowledge of Rotary. It covered Club Administration; Rotary Foundation; Service; Publicity & Public Relations. Her 'grand total' was good to average and thankfully her 'don't knows' was normal.

How to Modernise Your Meetings— This information was taken from 'Rotary Club Membership Recruitment and Retention Workshop'. The list of suggestions are not set in concrete and they would not suit all clubs but they are just meant to give us something to think about. It was pleasing to note that our club fares well. Our meetings do normally start and finish on time. We do have a proper agenda. Our president this year is introducing changes to our meetings to add value for the membership. (and it seems to be working) We do have regular and interesting speakers. The president doesn't usually wear the chain of office and the sergeant definitely never wears the sash. We do enjoy saying the loyal toast and the invocation. We did have an interesting discussion regarding speakers and guests, sometimes we could perhaps go out of our way more to make sure they are never left alone.

Guiding Principles of Rotary—Jane quickly ran through (as she was running out of time, and we have to finish on time!) The Object of Rotary; The Four Avenues of Service: The Four-Way Test and the Declaration of Rotarians in Business and Professions. This was on a handy A4 sheet of paper which was handed out to interested members.

It was interesting to hear what members had to say and it was quite clear we probably do have out meetings almost 'right'. Unfortunately we didn't get to the 26 Reasons why members drop out of clubs or the 23 ways to retain members. Perhaps at another meeting.
