FOUR WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

INVOCATION

For good food,
good fellowship,
and every opportunity of service,
we give you thanks O Lord.
Amen

Last Week's Chair's Thought for the Week

How come people who think all life is predetermined still look both ways before crossing the road?

LAST WEEK

Past President Jane's Opening Remarks:

Hi ya all.

Members Highlights:

Brian's Godmother died from complications of a fall.

Damien managed to have Xmas off and enjoy it with family.

Michelle was married 41 years and never a fight.

Paul rode a bike from his house in McLennan St to the beach and then had to ride home again and it was damn hot, plus the Rotunda paving is nearly finished in time for Australia Day.

David is now a Granddad and had his first holiday with an empty nest in 24 years.

Glen went gardening in the dark and heat, but then thought better of it.

Anniversaries:

Raffle - raised $52 and won by David firstly and then Vicki.

Sergeant Michelle's fine for the week:

Jane - try to have a year with no new grandkids.

Report:

Michelle - Ball posters nearly done. All going well, but please now sell tickets.

Guest speaker - Damien Trenwith - Apex in Whyalla

He had a traumatic start to life with an elder brother dying of childhood leukemia and a twin brother needing bowel surgery as a child.

Apex was started by 4 accountants who were friends and wanted to join the same Rotary Club but could not due to the restrictive classification rules of the time - Rotary's loss was Apex's gain.

Apex issued free milk to children in 1937 and 60% of Apexians went to WW2 which prompted Apex to organise chest x-rays for returned servicemen to look for T.B.

Besides Whyalla Apex organising the yearly Xmas pageant and after party, Damien's main passion at the moment is the Apex outback Postie Cycle ride to raise money for families who have a child needing cancer treatment. This ride has raised enough money to pay for "David's Place" which can house a family from the bush while they get cancer treatment for a child. Apex has had 26 members, but currently it is 12 including shift workers.
