FOUR WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship, and every opportunity of service, we give you thanks O Lord.

Amen

LAST WEEK

Presidents Remarks—Kerre

“Wow—we have had a busy week—Change over photos have been in the local paper and the S & E challenge has been a great success.” Kerre then went on to introduce Mitchell Ollington who was being inducted tonight. Mitchell was accompanied by his wife Tiffany and his proposer Bob Norman. Kerre went on to tell us that we would have another induction next week—Joy Penman has agreed to become a member of our club.

Reminders—Board meeting on Thursday evening, 7pm at 93 Flinders Avenue

Bob Norman, Tiffany and Mitchell Ollington and President Kerre

Highlights.—here are a few

- Jack commented on Jenny's Birthday
- Mark has been appointed to the Aged and Disability committee
- Jessica has new subjects and it is Lynne's birthday.
- Helen; Keith; Jane; Soto & Michele enjoyed the Science & Engineering Challenge
- Joy attended the 'Hearing Voices' workshop at the University.
- Mitchell and Tiffany caught up with their new niece Tessa

Sergeant—Soto was our Sergeant tonight

- Jari—is it more painful to give Soto a Dollar or go to the dentist?
- Helen's— passport photo appears she looks like a terrorist
- At the S & E challenge it was like where's Wally trying to find Michele
- Keith—takes two photos just in case the first doesn't work
- Mitchell's comments on how lucky he is to be a Rotarian
- Jane—Typo in the Bulletin

Reports—Helen, Youth Protection Officer

- Helen gave all members a copy of the new, Rotary District 9500 policy 'A Safe Environment for Children & Vulnerable People'. Helen explained the requirements of our club members.

Reports—Jane—Science and & Engineering Challenge

- Jane reported back to the club the positive feedback she is having from the volunteers and the team from the challenge.

This week we decide to have a fun and games night

Rotarian, Helen Mills was given the task of coming up with a quiz for us. This is Helen's first attempt as Program Director, great job, well done. Helen had three quizzes for us, we only had time for two, her is one:

Below are proverbs written with exactly one letter of each word replaced with another. Can you figure out what the original proverb is:

1. Wetter mate that fever = Better late than never. Here are a few more
2. If as dot oven mill she far lazy sines
3. I switch is dime raves mine
4. So nets if goof mews
5. Take hat white she sin whines
6. Won't budge I took my ids covet
7. Calf I load if wetter that so break
8. Loot befort yon heap
9. Binds if I heather frock together
10. Won't pit oft pill gomorrow whet you tan go toddy
11. Earls so red, earls no rose
12. Beauts in oily shin beep
