What is Kupu-Kupu ?

Kupu-Kupu Foundation is a non profit and non-governmental organisation whose aim is to improve the lives of physically and mentally disadvantaged children, adolescents and adults on the island of Bali, Indonesia. They are totally privately funded.

Kupu-Kupu is the Indonesian word for butterfly, chosen because it symbolises the hope that those served can break from their cocoon and fly away like butterflies.

Rotary Information - Alistair

Ideas and suggestions for the layout of the van are urgently required so that work can begin. It will be too late to make alterations afterward. This is your only opportunity!

SERGEANT: - Brian Moodie

Apparently the chooks in John's Taj Mahal of chook-houses are doing so well, that the eggs are turning into chooks before John can collect them!

GUEST SPEAKER

Joseph Sanders - Solo Small Business Management

*Guest speaker
Joseph Sanders*

Joseph operates a legal practice without requiring any secretarial or office support thanks to modern technology and a program called PC Law. The program allows him to manage his practice, dictate letters and issue accounts using this interactive technology which responds to verbal commands. Doing these tasks himself, frees him from the confines of payroll, performance management, supervision and training and other HR responsibilities. The technology enables him to manage this effectively without restricting his time available for cases and clients.

Joseph practices a wide variety of legal disciplines and deals in criminal cases, legal aid, wills and public liability. He is the GP of the legal profession.

YOUR OLD TIES PLEASE!

Fai is collecting old ties to put into a quilt she is making. I'm sure there are some fantastic old ties out there which haven't been worn for years. Any psychedelic ones from the 70's or the ones you received for Fathers Day's, Birthdays and Christmas's in years past would be greatly appreciated.
