09-10 CHANGE OVER DINNER

Master of Ceremonies, Tim Clements opened this special changeover meeting in the usual way. He went on to thank and welcomed our distinguished and special guest for joining us. Speakers on the night included, the Assistant Governor, Kaye Doyle who gave the Toast to Rotary International and Glen Eden, past District Governor who gave the response.

Perry Eden & Kaye Doyle

Our outgoing president Jari Peltonen gave a brief run down of the clubs accomplishments during his year and commended members for their continued fundraising efforts to the club. Presentations he made on the night included

- ☆ Keith and Jack received recognition for their perfect attendance this year, and
- ☆ Tim was honoured to become a Paul Harris Fellow.

Michele Hart, our incoming president thanked Jari for his contribution and achievements in the past year and assured him she would carry on the worthwhile projects he had started. She then presented him with his Presidential Citation and a bound copy of the Bulletins for 08 – 09. It was with great pride that Michele went on to introduce her board . Jari Peltonen—Vice Chairman; Keith Sichler—Secretary; Damien Hyde—Treasurer; Fai Chivell—Public Relations and Peter Nichols—Service Projects.

With the official proceedings over members and guests continued to enjoy the night with:

- ☆ A successful raffle, special thanks goes to, Friend of Rotary, Paulette Green for her efforts
- ☆ Sergeant, Soto Stuppos, devised an Australian quiz that had everyone bamboozled at times and caused lots of discussion between tables.
- ☆ An amusing rendition of three Pam Ayres' lyrical poems by none other than our own unique Fai Chivell

A successful evening of good company, good food, good music and dancing. A good night was had by one and all.

The Three Van Men

Alistair (Captain Cupcake) Stevenson; Soto (The Pope) Stuppos and Steve (the Hangman) Linck

On Tuesday 14 July we had a special meeting at the Pavilion where the Van Men had organised a mud map of the new Van. This was to let the members see how the new van will look. This was both an interesting and informative night. Special thanks go to Alistair and Soto for providing Tea. From all members thank you very much. The BBQ was a great success.
