PRESIDENTS REMARKS - Michele Hart

President Michele attended the Graham Jose Awards. Lauren Mathews was a worthy winner. It was a good night and during casual conversation with Mayor Jim Pollock it was suggested that Rotary should keep an eye out for nominees for the Citizen of the Year Award. The Show—Michele thoroughly enjoyed it, thinking it was great fellowship even in the hot winds and cold rains. Thanks to all who gave their time. A reminder about Whyalla Norrie Changeover next Monday night, if she 'had printed the email' Michele would have given us the details.....

Highlights

Clint — became a pensioner this week. Sotto — is glad the 'Lassie' came home. Peter — is glad the Whyalla Show is over and he lived to tell the tale. Glen — is pleased, because not having email means he receives invitations the old fashioned way, from the mail box in the garden and he just happens to have his invitation to the Whyalla Norrie Change Over dinner with him. He was able to share all the details with the meeting.

Birthdays & Anniversaries

President Michele has a birthday today. One year ago Jane joined Rotary.

Service Projects - Peter Nichols

Peter gave the meeting a brief breakdown of the takings from the Whyalla Show. He was pleased everything ran smoothly. An advert has been put in the Whyalla News regarding the change of date for the raffle draw. There are still some books outstanding.

Club Service - Jack Odgers

Brief meeting tonight after this meeting

Sergeant - Soto Stuppas

Soto was in fine form again Damien— will never forget to turn up for the radio; Tim— was seen walking the streets! very healthy.... Jack — With photograph for proof Jack is the new Doughnut Queen. Kerry — Left her raffle prize behind. Jane — was left speechless when she saw Cathy at the Show. The Sergeant — for taking a man look for the raffle book. And last but not least Alistair — Port have gone starboard again.

Rotary Information I - Tim

Asked Keith to draft and send a letter to Country Rosa for the work they did for Dion and Coralie. Tim also told the meeting about his attendance at the Whyalla Norrie Meeting.

Rotary Information II - Alistair

The Pavilion—some damage has been done from the 'Show', Alistair is in contact with the Whyalla Show committee. Insurance—Alistair had some questions about insurance for the pavilion, he would like to see it to ensure his 'tools are covered'. Week-end of the 29th—all hands on deck. Bring tools. What ever hours you can spare.

GUEST SPEAKER

Clare McLaughlin—Westland Shopping Centre. Now and in the future.

This was not the first time Clare has been the Guest Speaker at Rotary. She remembered fondly her previous visit. Clare told us about her own life and how she had come to Whyalla; from being keen on hospitality; her exciting years at the Hyatt; having her own business; having her children and coming to Whyalla with her, then, partner. When Clare came to Whyalla she looked for different employment and became the Manager of Noni B. This was a good move, she enjoyed the sales and it led to her current position of Centre Manager. In her six years in this position it has been interesting and has many facets. The daily running of the Centre and the government offices across the street means looking after; contractors; security; cleaning; marketing; traders committee. Issues at the centre can vary from giving out parking permits to live saving; to bomb threats, flooding and fires. The installation of the sprinklers in every shop was a colossal undertaking and everything had to be organised to be done at night. Clare regularly meets with the traders to discuss upcoming events and promotions and values their advice. There is enormous opportunity to grow and benefit and the syndicate of owners are enthusiastic to see Westlands' potential fully realised. However, in today's economic climate plans are progressing slowly. These include, the Centre upgrade; K. Mart; New Coles; extensions to Target, things always take longer than we think. The signage has gone up for the new Whyalla Public Library. The building of this will commence within 12 months. Community Groups are always welcome at the Centre, they will always be supported.

No two days are ever the same, She has a good working relationship with the tenants, who are doing fairly well. Being a tenant gave her a good understanding of what is needed. In the seven years Clare has been in Whyalla she has made many good friends and it has allowed her to meet her wonderful partner, Paul.
