Highlights

👉 Fai—a bit of a lowlight. Val, Fai's mum, has had a heart attack but is now doing well and looking forward to her next outing with Glen. 👉 Jane—has eventually got her outfit for the wedding. 👉 Damien—has bought a Jaguar V12 last week-end hence his apology for not being at the van breakup. 👉 Glen—was host to visitors from Queensland last week. 👉 Keith—Mum who is 80 has returned from the United Kingdom. 👉 Perry—is happy that after painting the walls in the house his wife is happy and he is not looking for a new house any more. 👉 Alistair—Mum-in-law, Daisy at the age of 91 died this week, the highlight is he has been asked to do the Eulogy.

Club History - Vin Higgins

Vin told us about the Intercity meeting #1060, Saturday 7th February 1976, at the Whyalla Institute when the District Governor and his wife were guests at the dinner.

REPORTSSecretary - Keith Sichter

- * Tim Klar (Shelterbox Area Coordinator) has had a severe heart attack and although his chances of surviving are slim, he has survived a 2 hour operation at Ashford Hospital.
- * Probus Club of Darwin has written requesting a $500 donation toward their 2010 Darwin Probus Rendezvous.
- * RDA Newsletter
- * Events Whyalla have requested a donation $600 toward the Eyre Peninsula Regional little Athletics Games

- * Elizabeth Trickett (not the swimmer) would like to organise a Domestic Violence conference and want us to be involved from an organisational point of view and sponsor and promote the event. Board considered this and although we declined the offer to participate, we did offer support through our network of contacts
- * Some bills from, PFD Foods, RDU and Richards Lock & Safe.

Sergeant - Soto Stuppos

Once again our sergeant was on fine form, 👉 Damos V12 to 👉 Keith's 80yr old mum to 👉 Jari's (who is the hardest to catch) 'mug-shot' in the Saltbush to Steel newsletter. 👉 Soto took this opportunity to thank the ladies; Cheryl; Michele and Michele's Mum Des for the meal they cooked last week-end. His next snippet was that Hood Sweeney are moving premises and will sponsor the Christmas Eve fireworks in town. Our club has the opportunity to be involved in the BBQ.

Rotary Information

Tim – This week Tim attended the Interest Meeting at Whyalla Norrie. Tim gave a very positive report.

Alistair – Update of the MCU (mobile catering unit) - exciting news, following the exceptional work at the week-end, the van, oops MCU, is now 3 weeks ahead of schedule. It is down to the chassis. A big thanks to all.

Perry – It's time once again to renew the local contact. Perry was looking for volunteers. Hopes to have a meeting next week to discuss strategies.

Jane – Gave the meeting some information about the Bulletin. Who was responsible for its design; what's involved; who it is sent to; when it is sent to the printer; why some things are in it.

QUEST SPEAKER

Steve Griffiths—O.H.S & W.—the changes I've seen

Steve has 28yrs experience in Health and Safety; it is his career and his passion. His early influences included his grandfather being killed at work. Working in Construction, the BHP Foundry where he almost tripped and fell in the Treadwell. As a nurse in health care and then working with BHP as the nurse led to his working in Health & Safety.

Alistair and Steve

Steve used the changes through the decades to illustrate the improvements. In the 80's injury rates were high and it was recognised things needed to improve. At this time it was driven by the safety department. In the 90's benchmarking was introduced, there was initial discussions with DuPont and there was the development of Accelerated Safety Program with BHP. It was the start of top level management commitment and their desire to involve and engage employees. By the late 90's there were significant improvements. Statistics showed there was a 50% reduction per annum in the Lost Time Injury Frequency Rate (LTIFR) and 30% reduction per annum in the Medical Treatment Injury Frequency Rate (MTIFR). OHS&W is an ongoing process and in 2000's there is now involvement and engagement; clear standards; contractor safe systems of work; safety is seen as everyone's responsibility; there is leadership competencies and improved Risk Management Processes. The points Steve wanted us to take away included; 'We need to build a culture where incidents and injuries at work are unacceptable; Everyone has a role to play in safety' This was an interesting presentation and there were many questions asked.
