ROTARY INFORMATION

Monthly Attendance Reports

From D.G. Eric.

With regard to our practice of collecting and publishing monthly attendance reports I advise that I am taking the lead from RI Director Stuart Heal who has said that – “we are service clubs not attendance clubs” thus advising us to measure a members contribution by the service they give and not how many meetings they attend. This is not to say that we do not value the effort of attending 100% or the attendance rules but as a result the district will not collect or publish attendance reports this year there is therefore no need to send reports to Helen Kite who we thank for doing this task in the past. Of course clubs may wish to continue the practice for their own information and internal use.

THOUGHT OF THE WEEK

If you are here to help others, what are they here for?

PRESIDENTS REMARKS - Jack Odgers

President Jack welcomed Rotarians and guests.

BIRTHDAYS

- ▶ None this week, but Glen celebrated his 79th last week.

MEMBER'S HIGHLIGHTS

- ◆ Tim visited the RC of Roxby Downs for their changeover which was held in Sandy Sumison's back yard with four large camp ovens cooking the main meal and desserts you couldn't jump over. During the formalities, the Past President is presented with a feather duster, just too remind them that one year you are the rooster, the next, a feather duster.
- ◆ Soto visited the Mt. Laura Lions changeover and had his tail twisted twice! He is looking forward to returning the favour at our changeover.

SECRETARY - Tim

- ◆ Food bank has a new CEO as Leigh Royans has moved to a reduced workload due to ill health.
- ◆ The Australia day Council are getting in early asking us to consider nominating a citizen who makes us proud.
- ◆ Email received from District Disaster Chairman Geoff Irish thanking us for our donation. $1,000 may be used in Qld to fund a 'Mental Health First Aid' course and as for the Christchurch Earthquake, they are waiting until the after-shocks cease before committing our other $1,000 donation, but will keep us posted.
- ◆ No meeting on Tuesday 19th.

Club SERVICE - Soto

- ◆ Handover Board meeting has been moved to Hood Sweeney's Office yesterday.
- ◆ Changeover Dinner is on Sat. 16th July at the Golf Club. Cost is $45 .
- ◆ Michele and Paulette are organising prizes for the raffle. Rotarians are asked to donate $10 to the cause. Michelle will collect.

SERGEANT - Soto Stuppos

Amongst others, Sgt Soto had a fine on Tim for declaring that he couldn't jump over the dessert at the Roxby District changeover. Soto doubted he even tried - more than likely he tried to eat his way through it!

GLEN'S MAKE-UP.

PDG Glen was in Adelaide last week and did a meeting make-up at the Rotary Club of Largs Bay where Wendy Dowling is the newly inducted President. The club has about 13 members and 9 Honorary members. The Club is famous for refurbishing wheelchairs and sent 54 overseas through Donations In Kind and utilised 8 locally during this past year.

GUEST SPEAKER

Brian Moodie visits Cyprus

Brian entertained us with a few stories from his and Evelyn's recent overseas trip which included the village of Peyia in Cyprus. Quite a hilly pace with some of the bluest water surrounding the coastline Brian has ever seen.

Brian & Evelyn stayed in a big two-storey house and spent time visiting the historic sites, enjoying a cruise aboard the 'Jolly Roger' and meals at the local Taverna.

For anyone considering visiting Cyprus, the locals are very friendly, they almost all speak English and they drive on the same side of the road as we do.

The Taverna in Peyia.A new car always wins the girl!OUR Changeover Dinner

Saturday 16th July

6:30 pm for 7 pm.

(Michelle is collecting $10 from each member for the raffle prize.)
