THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

*Doing what you like, is freedom.
Liking what you do, is happiness.*

PRESIDENTS REMARKS - Soto Stuppos

Soto welcomed everyone to another action-packed meeting.

HIGHLIGHTS

- ▶ Brian and Evelyn had a wonderful time watching whales at the head of the Bight.
- ▶ Fai had positive feedback on her team achieving its census delivery objectives.
- ▶ Jane's granddaughter took her first steps.

REPORTS

1. Fai has written an article on our Changeover Dinner and DG Eric's visit which will appear in the Whyalla News this week. The article focuses on a younger image for Rotary to appeal to younger potential members.
2. Jack and Scott are taking a look at a large generator which could be donated to the Club.
3. Jane circulated the roster for the Whyalla Show.
4. Keith reminded everyone that their subs are due. $225 for the full year and $112.50 for the half year.

SERGEANT - Jack

Jack got stuck into everyone for a series of misdemeanours. Brian for making him jealous by visiting the whales; Fai for being the perfect team leader in her census role; Jane for being a 'blinkin' tourist' and Keith for short-changing Brian last week.

SUBS DUE

Annual subs of $225 (or $112.50 per half year) are due now.

RAFFLE:

Raised $28 and was won by Jane.

President's Quiz

President Soto designed a quiz with some unique challenge rules. Under the rules of the quiz, there are prizes for 1st, 2nd, 3rd and last. However the person who comes last can challenge the first placed person by answering one last question, and if they answer correctly, they win instead!

And so the quiz began, with Soto patrolling the room like a headmaster supervising an exam, but with a difference. Correct answers could be bought for $2 and clues for $1. Rotarians being the ethical creatures they are, decided against any form of corruption and no-one parted with any hard earned cash. Of course there could have been other reasons.

Nevertheless, at the end of 40 rather difficult questions, Fai had the most correct answers and Jack had the least. Under the challenge rule, last place can challenge 1st place by answering the 'Challenge Question' correctly. The Challenge Question was "What was the name of the book written by Salman Rushdie which caused him to receive death threats in 1988?" I don't think that Jack actually knew the answer but Fai did and mentioned it out loud. Jack overheard her and named 'The Satanic Verses' as the answer, which was correct. Under the rules of engagement, he won the quiz.

Jack won a bottle of Chivas Regal as 1st Prize and Fai won a bottle of champagne for 2nd. It turned out that both got their preference, and so justice was served!

Just for interest Brian Moodie won a special box of chocolates for 3rd and we all feasted on an array of chocolate goodies for participating.

(Considering the quality of prizes on offer, next time I am going to forsake my ethics and buy as many answers as necessary. Ed.)

DISTRICT CONFERENCE

A plug for the District Conference coming up in Renmark from 21st - 23rd October.

The Conference will be held in the Chaffey Theatre and is planned to be much more interactive than previous Conferences. In between time there is the beautiful scenery of the river and the warm hospitality of the Renmark Social Club.

Visit the District Conference website www.d9500conference.org.au for more information.

INVOCATION

For good food, good fellowship,
and every opportunity of service,
we give you thanks O Lord. Amen

FOUR WAY TEST

of the things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?
