▶ Kim learned how to make donuts. ▶ Michele survived the earthquake in the van.

REPORTS

1. SECRETARY Michele .

- Michele receive a letter donating the 110kv generator to Rotary. Scott Hubner is making a few repairs prior to us taking delivery.
- Rotarian Des Watts will be with us next week to talk about Shelterbox and Disaster Relief. Des is riding his BMW R100motorcycle to raise funds for this cause.
- We have been asked to provide a couple of cooks for Anya Hodgeman's 'morning after the wedding; breakfast at the Foreshore on Sunday 23rd October. This will comprise bacon & eggs, toast and juice etc for approx. 60 people.

2. AG TIM reminded us of the following events.

- District Membership Seminar at the Pavilion on 25th September from 10am till 3 pm. Keith, Jane, Michele, Tim and Jack indicated they will attend.
- Whyalla Norrie Ten pin Challenge. Soto will contact President Phil Zubrinich to arrange a date.
- End Polio Now funding. On page 35 of the August RDU there is an open letter to PM Julia Gillard regarding funding for our End Polio Now campaign. Please take the time to read it, download it and forward it to the Prime Minister.

3. Tree Planting. Soto reported that our Anniversary Tree is being re-potted. In the meantime we need to find out the date of Paul Harris' Australian visit.

4. Whyalla Show. Keith reported that we took $4,653 with a provisional Net profit of $1,961 for the two days. Overall a slightly better result than last year.

SERGEANT - Jack

Sgt Jack had much ammunition with the antics in the MCU being front and centre. Michele, Jane and Keith were busting a few moves to the band music on Saturday night, and Fai, who said she ‘worked like a dog, was fined for taking a cat nap in the afternoon.

RAFFLE:

Raised $44 and won by Jack, who always wins. He offered a re-draw which was won by Fai, who never wins!

ROTARY INFORMATION

Glen Eden

Glen re-lived some times past, regarding the fellowship of the ‘Fireside Chat’ which was an informal gathering of newer members and some older heads as a means of filling in the gaps on the programs of Rotary and club customs, policies and practices.

Glen also gave us the run down on using the Rotary logos appropriately. Apparently using the RI Wheel on its own signifies that the event or advertising is sanctioned by Rotary International and is an RI event.

Clubs using the logo must add their own name wherever the logo is used by the Club for its own purposes. This applies to signs, logos on clothing and any promotional advertising.
