of the things we think, say or do.

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair to all concerned?

KNOW YOUR FELLOW ROTARIAN:

Members photos. To date I only have 4 (including mine). Who is this?

Seriously folks please join in & send me pics of yourselves as youngsters. I don't really want to embarrass anyone—but what the heck!

TONIGHTS PROGRAM Meeting No.

CHAIRMAN	Brian Moodie
GUEST SPEAKER	Dr Artur Steinerworski
TOPIC	Social Enterprise Development
STEWARDS	Perry Eden & David Dunn

Sergeant Brian got the ball rolling with the authoritative use of the gong. President Jane—then being able to make herself heard over the banter opened the meeting & welcomed our guests Paulette Green (Michele) & Alex Todd our guest speaker, representing Regional Development Australia.

Jane is a very busy lassie as is obvious from her Opening Remarks:-

- 1) David Murray—riding around Australia for MYVACC (Landmine clearance in Vietnam etc) has been injured after falling in from his bike into the path of a truck on the Highway. He is being airlifted to R.A.H. with a broken hip & mangled hand.
- 2) Jane most impressed with DG's Newsletter—it not only provided her with the relevant Vocational Service points she needed for the Strategic Plan but also highlighted the induction of our two newest members.
- 3) A reminder of the District Leadership Seminar on 4 Nov—she would really appreciate Club Members' company!!!

Chairman's Thought for the Week:

I believe it is better to be looked over than to be overlooked
(Mae West—who else?)

Peace Through Service

LAST WEEK

- 4) Board meeting (short one) immediately following this meeting.
- 5) Jane again asked for names of potential Australia Day Award Nominees.
- 6) The MCIU required in Patterson St on 22 December for the City Traders fireworks spectacular.
- 7) A thank you from the Whyalla Show Society for use of the Pavilion.

Highlights & Achievements: Members shared their delight at both sharing & farewelling grandkids, Motor-cycling to Hancock's Lookout, Fiona helping Glen fill out his Volunteer form, trip to Perth (Michele again!), son represented Whyalla in U15's Hockey—went down in Grand Final, Port Lincoln with family (Jack, not Michele), Gold Coast (Brian not Michele), Gawler Ranges & Streaky Bay camping trip (John D not Michele) & John C impressed by strength in glass door at the pharmacy.

Apologies: Cheryl, John H & Kerre.

History teller Keith shared the proceedings of meeting # 1927 from 14 January 1993 with us. Some familiar names & a report on 3 months in Antarctica from Jim Higgins.

Attendance: 94%.

Raffle, two prizes courtesy of Chairman Soto, drawn by Paulette & Alex & won by Perry & Keith. Raised $60.

LAST WEEK

Sergeant Brian like all good Sergeants, has been listening to some nefarious & poorly informed characters who show little or no respect for Rotary's 4 Way Test! Ouch the truth hurts! (even if it does set you free—but not at a dollar a time!) Ha!

Guest Speaker Alex Todd was introduced by Chairman Soto.

Alex outlined his extensive Government & Private Sector experience in a variety of consultative roles especially in agriculture across South Australia. Alex holds a degree in Applied Science & an MBA.

Alex & his wife have settled happily in Whyalla & enjoy being 5 minutes from everything without the queues & traffic congestion.

Alex presented a comprehensive overview of the Vision & wide ranging scope of the RDA mandate—all designed to benefit business development & growth in this region.

Regional Development Australia Whyalla and Eyre Peninsula

- Part of national framework
- 3 levels of Government contribute
- Primary Role: Economic Development
- Work on 5 key fronts
 - Infrastructure
 - Investment
 - Sustainable business growth
 - Business Capability
 - Employment

Paul proposed the Vote of Thanks on the Club's behalf.
