Thought for the Week

He who has health has hope, he who has hope has everything

Presidents Remarks - Jack Odgers

In welcoming us to the Meeting, Pres. Jack asked who brought the wind and dust, but nobody owned up.

Highlights

Clint had a visit from his family from WA, they enjoyed a trip to Whaler's Way.

Michele has become a great aunt, we think she is trying to compete with "Grannie"

Peter insisted he saw a pigeon flying backwards in the wind, but he is the Sergeant and they have been known to exaggerate.

Birthdays & Anniversaries

John Holds birthday is on Saturday.

Due to the lack of notable events, Tim had checked on what had happened on this day during history.

REPORTSSecretary - Tim Clements

Tim had finally received two copies of the Manual of Procedure, one for the Club and one for Glen.

In his role as Ass. Governor Tim spoke about the Rotary website, he passed round a Rotary calendar and a book on 100 years of the Rotarian, both of which he had purchased from the site.

The District has a plan in place to present a book, entitled Ten Little Ten Little Toes, this was written by Mem Fox, to every child born in the District on the 23rd of February, which is the anniversary of the foundation of Rotary..

The Club will purchase some of these books from the District and Jane will liaise with the Whyalla Hospital.

Service Projects - Jane Owens

January's Committee meeting has been postponed, as it has been a very quiet month.

Jane's husband David has collected the printed copies of the Local Contact Directory, these will now be taken to the Post Office for distribution.

The Wesley Life Force Suicide Prevention Group are having a seminar at the Westlands Hotel on February the 19th, for further info. Contact Jane

Sergeant - Peter Nichols

Peter fined Jari, as he was told to water the plants in his garden deeply, but that did not mean several kilolitres.

There was some confusion as to whether David had been acting as a bouncer or not and Brian for not knowing who the President of the Norrie Club is.

Both Tim and Clint had had a touch of fame by having their pictures in the Whyalla News.

GUEST SPEAKER

This Meeting was a "Fun Night" and to that end, Soto compiled a quiz.

The prizes for this were supplied by the Commonwealth Bank, though the sponsorship was hardly up to what they give for the One Day cricket against the "Poms:

Fai and Keith won the "major" prizes, which were white fluffy slip on slippers, with the bank logo on them. I don't suppose that Keith will wear them at work.

He tried to give them away, but he had no takers!

Fai was pleased, as she won a raffle prize as well. She reckoned this will be her prize winning for the year.

As usual, Soto posed some very difficult questions, which was only fair due to the quality of the prizes!

Brian then ran a "Who is it, what is it" musical quiz

Vote of Thanks, Fai

Fai thanked both Members for their efforts.

Just a Thought,

You know you are getting old, when your mind makes contracts that your body cannot keep!
